MICHAEL SPINELLO

Troop One's 28th Eagle Scout
November 2005

What you are doing now?

Starting my senior year at the Naval Academy. I will be commissioned as a 2nd Lt. in the United States Marine Corps come May 2013. I have taken command of Bravo Company, 4th Platoon for the Plebe Summer for the class of 2016. At the beginning of the academic year I will be platoon commander for 2nd Platoon, 4th Company as well as the President of the Marital Arts Program at the Naval Academy.

Are you married?

No.

Kids (names and ages)

None.

Favorite Troop One Memory

The two times we went to Bear Lake. It was a great place and even better company together. Other than that every meeting we had will always be with me in my heart. I was SPL twice and loved every minute of it.

Words of Wisdom (to new/existing scouts, up and coming Eagles), how Eagle has helped you in life, etc.

Stick with it no matter what others tell you about scouts. The skills you learn now will come in handy further down the road and you will be thankful for the trades you picked up and the friends you made. Being an Eagle Scout sets you apart from others and binds you to strangers that are also Eagles. It's a long road, but in the end you look back wondering how it went by so fast and thankful that you finished it.
