Important excerpts from the ‘Guide To Advancement’, No. 33088:

Effective January 1, 2012, the ‘Guide to Advancement’ (which replaced the publication ‘Advancement Committee Policies and Procedures’) is now the official Boy Scouts of America source on advancement policies and procedures.

- [Inside front cover, and 5.0.1.4] — Unauthorized Changes to Advancement Program
No council, committee, district, unit, or individual has the authority to add to, or subtract from, advancement requirements.
(There are limited exceptions relating only to youth members with disabilities. For details see section 10, “Advancement for Members With Special Needs”.)
- [Inside front cover, and 7.0.1.1] — The ‘Guide to Safe Scouting’ Applies
Policies and procedures outlined in the ‘Guide to Safe Scouting’, No. 34416, apply to all BSA activities, including those related to advancement and Eagle Scout service projects. [Note: Always reference the online version, which is updated quarterly.]

In addition to the excerpts shown here, Eagle Palm candidates should review and pay particular attention to the following portion of the Guide to Advancement, which is too lengthy to reproduce here:

Section 8. Boards of Review: An Overview for All Ranks [Subsections 8.0.0.1 – 8.0.1.5]

- [8.0.2.0] — Particulars for Tenderfoot Through Life Ranks (or Palms)
The preceding applies to boards of review for all ranks, but there are a few differences for the ranks other than Eagle, and for Eagle Palms:
 1. The board is made up of three to six unit committee members—no more and no less. In units with fewer than three registered committee members available to serve, it is permissible to use knowledgeable parents (not those of the candidate) or other adults (registered or not) who understand Boy Scouting’s aims.
 2. For a Varsity Scout team, the committee member responsible for advancement, the advancement program manager (youth), and the coach serve on the board.
 3. One member serves as chair. The unit committee decides how he or she is chosen. The chair conducts review meetings according to BSA procedures and reports results to the unit advancement coordinator.
 4. The location should be comfortable, such as the unit meeting place, a camp, or a leader’s home.
 5. The review should take approximately 15 minutes, but no longer than 30 minutes.
 6. Ranks and Palms may not be presented until the advancement is reported to the local council through the BSA’s Internet Advancement or on the official Advancement Report form.
- [9.0.3.0] — About Eagle Palms
Scouts or qualified Venturers and Sea Scouts may earn Palms after they have achieved the Eagle Scout rank. For each one they must be active three months since their last award (Eagle or Palm), demonstrate Scout spirit, make an effort to develop and demonstrate leadership, earn five additional merit badges beyond those required for Eagle or the last Palm, take part in a unit leader conference, and pass a board of review. All requirements except the board of review must be completed before age 18, and time extensions are not available. Merit badges earned at any time since becoming a Scout may be used. Palms must be earned in sequence, one at a time (Bronze, Gold, Silver), with the time requirement observed for each one. Palms are not considered ranks, but rather degrees of the Eagle Scout rank.
